CHARLES J. ABEL

Appointed Administrator of Estate of Mrs. Adeline Brown.

There was a hearing on the application for the appointment of an administrator on the estate of the late Mrs. Adeline Brown of Village Hill, at the home of Judge A. J. Kneeland of Lebanon, on a lengthy affidavit and for a time it appeared that it would be quite a while before an agreement could be reached that would be satisfactory to all concerned. Mrs. Emma Tracy-Sadler, one of the daughters, was represented by Attorney P. J. Danahy of this city. Mrs. Adeline Brown of Ellington, the other daughter, was not represented by counsel, who was unable to be present. He had pressing business in another state.

Mrs. Sadler, through her attorney, favored the appointment of William E. Jackson of this city, a grandson by marriage of the deceased, for administrator, and an extra strong plea was advanced in his behalf. Mrs. Brown, the other daughter, favored the appointment of E. J. Weeks of this city, who is also grandson by marriage of the deceased, but this was vigorously opposed by Mrs. Sadler and her attorney, Mr. Danahy. During a recess a compromise was reached and the appointment of Charles J. Abel of Lebanon, was appointed administrator by Judge Kneeland. No will was left by the deceased. The appraisers appointed were L. B. Smith and Sands W. Throp, both of Lebanon. The property is said to comprise the

WANTED RING BACK.

South Coventry Man Did Not Care for Wallet and Money.

Peter Ducharme of North Windham, arrested Saturday evening on complaint of Hiram Fred Bellwire of South Coventry, the latter alleging that he was relieved of a wallet containing a gold ring valued at $7, given him by his mother, and $5 in money, while he was asleep in Jack Nichols' saloon on Main street, and was later taken to court Saturday morning before Judge William A. Arnold. He entered a plea of not guilty and the case was continued until this morning, for investigation, the prisoner being placed under $100 bonds. Bellwire said he did not wish to prosecute Ducharme but simply wished to get his ring back, which he had lost in the wallet and money. Ducharme changed his plea to guilty when the charge was read and was taken to the police station late Sunday evening.

Evangelistic Services at Baptist Church.

Special evangelistic services at the First Baptist church opened at 7 o'clock Sunday with Stated Evening Service. Evangelist Flanders in charge. In the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the same church there was a union service for men, which was largely attended. The meeting was an exceptionally interesting one and the evangelist spoke and sang with great power. A large number of people were present at every service at the Baptist church each evening all this week. Rev. Ralph Hargis, pastor of the church, also spoke at the union service Sunday afternoon.

Governor and Mrs. Clark Coming Home.

Gov. Walter E. Clark and wife sailed from New York Sunday, March 6, for Seattle, Wash., where they are due about Tuesday or Wednesday morning. Governor Clark is on a two months' leave of absence from the time he left Juneau, the Alaskan capital, and he will spend a portion of that leave in Washington, but it is expected that he will spend something like two weeks with his mother, Mrs. Emily J. Ross of Chaplin, and other relatives in this vicinity.

FUNERAL.

Mrs. Amanda Clark. Funeral services for Mrs. Amanda Clark were held at her home in Atwoodville Sunday afternoon, March 6, at 2 o'clock. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. Walter E. Clark, pastor of the Mansfield Center Congregational church, officiated. Burial was in the Atwoodville cemetery. The Rev. E. J. Weeks and Shepard of this city were in charge of the arrangements.

To Resume Work on Federal Building.

Weather permitting, work on the federal postoffice will be resumed this morning. The men who have worked on the job have been notified to report for work. The work was closed down some weeks ago because of the severity of the weather. It is said that the mason work on the structure can be completed within a month under favorable weather conditions and no hold-ups caused by waiting for materials.

First Thunder Storm.

The first thunder storm of the season visited Willimantic Sunday afternoon, a sign of an early spring.

W. H. S. Defeats Rockville.

The Windham high school basketball team journeyed to Rockville on Saturday and returned with another victory to its credit, having soundly trounced the high school five of that city by the score of 17-4. The lineup of the local five was Downer, R. Vanderman Jr., Richmond, C. Leonard, R. Harrington Jr. The result only goes to show that sometimes the substitutes can play a good game if they have the opportunity. It would have been good policy on the part of the Windham school to have taken along a couple more substitutes and given them a try out also, when it was apparent that the game was to be won easily and thus given next year's candidates for the Windham team a little beneficial work in something besides a mere practice game at home.

Hilltop's Hospitality.

There was a pleasant gathering in the rooms of the Hilltop house company Saturday evening and those present enjoyed the fine bean supper provided. Later there was an informal program of music in the parlor and games were enjoyed in the recreation room.

A. B. S. Social.

Saturday night's social and dance in A. B. S. hall was attended by fully 120 couples and there was a good time for all present. Music was furnished by the "Thread City Cyclers" orchestra of six pieces. There was a large crowd of Norwichee. Refreshments were served at intermission.

Grex vs. Thread City Five.

A basketball game is scheduled for this week at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium between the Grex club and the Thread City Cyclers. The Grex club

Is largely composed of Windham high school players and as there is much rivalry between the two organizations the contest promises to be an exciting one. At present it is not known how the teams will line up.

Raided House of Ill-Fame.

The police raided the house at No. 23 Jackson place, Sunday evening, and arrested Mrs. Frances Heinz, 24, colored, for keeping a house of ill-fame. Miss Annie Robertson, colored, was taken with George Peters and Nicholas Larson, two Italians, who were in the place, and the latter three locked up in the police station, charged with frequenting a house of ill-fame. Mrs. Heinz was allowed to remain in the house as she has five small children, the youngest a baby of 3 months. Her husband, Andrew Heinz, died in prison a year and a half ago. All four will be arraigned in police court this morning.

Death of Mrs. Ellen Moore.

Mrs. Ellen Moore, 50, who has been ill at the home of her son, James Moore, who resides at 10 o'clock Saturday night. Mrs. Moore was a native of County Clare, Ireland, but came to this country at the age of 16. Up to within three years she has lived at Collinsville, Conn., and since then with her daughter in New York. She leaves three children, James, of Danielson, Dr. Anthony Moore of Memphis, Tenn., and Mrs. Ira Thomas, at present of Danielson.

JEWETT CITY

Party for Miss Doris Myott on Her Ninth Birthday.

Doris Myott and her little girl friends enjoyed a very pleasant party from 5 to 8:30 Friday, it being her ninth birthday. She received many beautiful gifts from her guests. Mr. and Mrs. Myott played a violin duet and the rest of the time was spent with games. In the same of pinning the most car nearest the proper place Alice Shaw received the prize and the spelling match Alice Gilbert received the first prize and Ruth Davis the second prize. As children went to the dining room, where the table was laden with good things, Miss May Raney played a march and Mrs. Myott sang a song. The party was a most pleasant affair.

Mr. J. B. Lucas continues to improve at St. Vincent's hospital, where she recently underwent an operation. Mrs. Albert C. Day of Providence, a member of the Nadel Arbeit club this week.

The meeting of the Windham County musical association in Putnam Tuesday will be attended by clergymen from this section.

Good Business on Saturday.

The spring temperature of Saturday brought out the first of the spring buyers and the storemen had a good day's business.

Mission for English-Speaking Parishioners.

The mission for the English-speaking members of St. James' parish was opened on Sunday. There was a large congregation at the evening sermon. The mission will continue throughout the week.

Finely Stocked New Department Store Opened.

On Saturday the Keystone department store company opened their new store in the Franklin block. This store is to be exclusively devoted to the sale of the best of goods and while it opens into the older store as a separate business, Miss Sadie Fulton is to have the management of the new department. The store has been newly fitted throughout and the arrangement is such as to make it convenient for both buyer and seller.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Hugh Gorman, 58, died at her home on Allen street Saturday morning. Mrs. Gorman had been ill only a few days, an attack of grip developing into pneumonia. She was a native of Ireland and had been in this country for many years and is well known here in Danielson. She leaves a husband and five children, Hugh, James, Thomas, Sadie and Alice. Mrs. Gorman was a member of the Methodist church of Danielson.

Attended League Meeting.

Daniel Gahan of North Grosvenordale, attended the League of Women Voters meeting at the home of Mrs. E. E. Clark of Willimantic and John E. Bennett of Putnam Sunday to attend a meeting of the directors of the Eastern Connecticut baseball league.

Big Cars Run to Central Village.

Since the arrangement of limiting the northward run of the crews on the Connecticut coast, the cars of the Thompsons was inaugurated, cars of the Webster and Worcester line are being run over the coast from the far south as Central Village. These cars, similar to the ones used on this division, are marked Danielson, Dayville, Putnam, Webster, Oxford and Worcester.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Opened at M. E. Church by Rev. Ralph S. Cushman—Excellent Singing.

Sunday morning at the Methodist church Rev. Ralph S. Cushman commenced a series of special meetings that are to be continued throughout this week. For two months cottage prayer meetings preparatory to these services have been held, and the indications are that the Lenten effort will be followed with much interest by a large number of persons.

On Sunday evening, J. Adams Oakes of the McWaters quartette assisted at the service and conducted the song service. Meetings are scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

BIRTHDAY CAKE

Made in Norwich for Dual Celebration at Home of Mrs. H. S. Dawe.

On the anniversary of her birth Mrs. H. S. Dawe was given a surprise by out of town relatives and friends at her home in Norwich. The celebration was a most successful one and the natal anniversary of Ruth Willson Clarke, six months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dawe, was also celebrated. The celebration became thereby a doubly pleasant occasion.

Among the many fine gifts presented Mrs. Dawe was a large birthday cake set within a cake of roses and candles. The fine cake was specially made in Norwich. The guests were served a bountiful dinner and during all of the day there was quiet entertainment for the happy gathering.

Among those present were Rev. F. J. Marsh, pastor of the First Baptist church at Gloucester, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Baker, Mrs. L. A. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Beach, Norwich, Mrs. Harold F. Foss, Northboro, Mass.

RESIGNS PASTORATE.

Rev. Denton J. Neely to Leave Baptist Church—Accepts Gloucester Call.

At the Sunday morning service at the Baptist church Rev. Denton J. Neely, who recently received a call to the pastorate of the First Baptist church at Gloucester, Mass., tendered his resignation to his Danielson congregation. The church is just as much as ever, and the people are just as kind and loyal, but it is to be regretted that a more pressing need calls for a more permanent pastor. For about four and one-half years we have labored with the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Neely. Our work together has been most delightful to me, and the vineyard has not failed to yield its fruitage. To the Lord send another laborer into this vineyard, may you all be abundantly blessed.

Personally yours, DENTON J. NEELY.

Danielson, Conn., March 6th, 1910.

W. P. Hatch of New York, formerly of Danielson, spent Sunday with relatives in Danielson.
